Junior transfer Breanna Taylor from Missouri State University-West Plains came to devote her playing time with the 2016 Lady Rams Volleyball team. Taylor's hometown is Houston, Texas, where she played club volleyball for Kaboom.

Taylor received her associate's degree this year in Applied Science from Junior College. She continues to further her education by pursuing her bachelor's in Business Management.

"I hope to use my degree to start my own cosmetics line, and explore other entrepreneurial opportunities," said Taylor.

Taylor will be walking the stage with the class of 2018.

Outside of volleyball, Taylor loves to cook, shop, knit, and enjoys hiking. She also adores her pet maltipoo Coco. Taylor's parents are Michael and Brenda Taylor. She is the youngest out of 4 brothers. Her brothers are Chris, Tereck and Weylyn.
