

Junior transfer Vanessa Salinas from Wharton County Junior College arrived determinedly to have a defeating season with the 2016 Lady Rams Volleyball team. Salinas accrued 235 digs and averaged 2.47 digs-per-set at Wharton.

Salinas, a Education major from Richmond, Texas, attended William B. Travis High School and played club volleyball for Fortbend Fire.

Salinas will be graduating in 2018 and desires to pursue her career in becoming a Kindergarten teacher. She also wishes to coach club volleyball. Her parents are Gloria and Richard Jr. Salinas. Richard Salinas III and Danielle Salinas are her siblings.
