Overview

The current Huston-Tillotson Concert music faculty and the concert choir follow a long history of excellence that dates to the friendly rivalry between Samuel Huston College and Tillotson College with their stellar music programs against the Austin "Live Music Capital of the World" reputation. The legacy of HT's great concert choir directors and accompanists lives through the establishment of the Marcet Hines King Endowed Chair Professorship. The choir's accomplishments are also memorialized through the Adams/Williams/Jones Endowed Scholarship, established by Nancy Crayton Jones in memory of choir directors Bert Adams, Nathaniel Williams, and her late husband Vernal Jones. Music faculty such as Beulah Agnes Curry Jones established a Huston-Tillotson foundation that has grown to its present level with faculty Stephen Burnaman, Javier Stuppard, and Gloria Quinlan guiding music majors to excellence in their respective fields.

In addition to becoming an "All-Steinway School," we have also identified new modern seating to enhance the King-Seabrook Chapel experience.

This is your opportunity to purchase one of the 390 seats in the chapel at a cost of $300 each. Purchase a single seat, row, section, or all of the seating that will be marked with a plaque, recognizing your donation.
