Huston-Tillotson University, the oldest institution of higher learning in Austin, Texas, is a historically black college affiliated with The United Methodist Church, The United Church of Christ and the United Negro College Fund.

The mission of the University is to provide an increasingly diverse student body with an exemplary education that is grounded in the liberal arts and sciences, balanced with professional development, and directed to public service and leadership.

As Alumni and Friends of the University, we, as the Huston-Tillotson International Alumni Association – Austin Chapter are proud to give to a great Institution that has given so much to us .This has made way for us as alumni to be able to pay it forward and give back.
