

W.E.B. DuBois Honors Program
 Application for the 2021-2022 Academic Year
 Huston-Tillotson University

Honors Program, Rising Sophomore Opportunity

Each year, approximately 2-5 students will receive letters of acceptance into the Honors Program via the Rising Sophomore Opportunity. If accepted, you will be eligible for a tuition waiver (covering your HT tuition and fees), and you will join the W.E.B. DuBois Scholars honor students who participate in specialized honors courses, career oriented opportunities, service project and cultural enrichment events.

The goals of our W.E.B. DuBois Honors Program are as follows:

- To motivate academically gifted and talented students
- To foster intellectual independence and the pursuit of academic excellence
- To intensify the learning experience at Huston-Tillotson University
- To prepare students for graduate schools and professional careers
- To promote lifelong learning

To the Teacher/Recommender:

Your student, whose name is indicated below, is applying for admission to the W.E.B. DuBois Honors Program. Our Honors Program is named for Dr. W.E.B. DuBois, the African American sociologist, historian, writer, civil rights activist and intellectual of the twentieth century. Launched during the fall semester of 2003, the Honors Program serves academically gifted and talented students whose high school accomplishments are indicative of their intellectual ability, motivation, and leadership ability. The program offers students scholarship assistance and a unique opportunity to enrich their undergraduate education through specialized curricula, career-oriented opportunities, service learning, and cultural activities.

Please assist us by indicating in your letter the student's qualifications for admission to our Program, including his/her/their academic ability, level of maturity, and leadership potential.
