DEVRY ANDERSON, M.D., MBA, CHCQM, FACHE, CPE

DeVry Anderson serves as the St. David's South Austin Medical Center Chief Medical Officer. He provides organization wide leadership for all hospital functions in one of the largest health systems in Texas. Responsibilities include providing management for a 355-bed inpatient acute care hospital, offering a range of complex specialties and sub-specialties, including a nationally accredited oncology program with the area's only adult bone marrow transplant program; a trauma program that includes all of the capabilities and programmatic elements of a Level II trauma center, three intensive care units, a comprehensive cardiac program; full-service maternity and newborn care with Level I and two nurseries.

Dr. Anderson earned degrees from Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health Healthcare Leadership Program, Boston, Massachusetts, focusing on management systems specific to health care; Norwich University, Northfield, Vermont, where he received the Master of Business Administration degree;

Thomas Jefferson University Hospitals, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he acquired the Doctor of Medicine with the MDMedicine/Surgery credentials; United States Military Academy at West Point, West Point, New York, with a bachelor's degree in chemistry and engineering; and the United States Army Command and General Staff College, Fort Levenworth, Kansas, to earn the Master of Science degree in organizational leadership.

While serving at Carl R. Darnall Army Medical Center, Fort Hood, Texas, he advanced from Department Chair Operational Medicine to Vice President/Deputy Commander Health Readiness to Executive Vice President/Deputy Commander Medical Services. Currently Anderson is also an Adjunct Professor of Medicine, Texas A&M Health Science Center College of Medicine, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas; and Adjunct Professor of Medicine, F. Edward Hébert School of Medicine, Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences; Bethesda, Maryland. He is an American College of Healthcare Executives Fellow with the prestigious FACHE® credentials by this international professional society of 40,000 healthcare executives who lead hospitals, healthcare systems and other healthcare organizations.

In addition to his career accomplishments, Dr. Anderson is a Texas Hospital Association council member; serves on the Huston-Tillotson University Board of Trustees; is a member of the Austin Black Physicians Association, Incorporation; assist the University of Texas Division of Diversity and Community Engagement; is a member of the Grand Boulé of the Sigma Pi Phi Fraternity and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Incorporated; and is an ordained minister who leads the men's ministry at Austin's Greater Mount Zion Baptist Church.

Dr. Anderson's licenses include American Board of Quality Assurance and Utilization Review Physicians® (ABQAURP); The American Board of Family Medicine; American College of Healthcare Executives; American Academy of Disability Evaluating Physicians (AADEP); and has a Six Sigma Black Belt Certification.

Dr. Anderson has published works with Military Leadership, Physician Leadership, Urgent Care Association of America (UCAOA); Academy of Orthopaedics; and the Society of Military Orthopaedic Surgeons.
